

PRESS RELEASE

For Release 13th March, 2013

South African distributor for SOS Marine's Dan Buoy

SOS Marine is proud to announce its appointment of Favoriza Pty Ltd trading as Brand Leader as its dedicated Dan Buoy distributor for South Africa and the rest of the African Continent.

Mac (Anthony) Braun is the managing director of Brand Leader and headquartered in Aeroport, Spartan South Africa. Anthony said "we are continually searching the world for a new approach to improve equipment capabilities and operational readiness and SOS Marine's SOS Dan Buoy man overboard product has made one of the biggest changes in marine-rescue devices in decades." The company is the exclusive distributor of GME products for same region.

SOS Marine is a manufacturer of maritime safety and rescue equipment providing specialised water front lifejackets and man-overboard equipment for naval forces, maritime law enforcements agencies and a range of marine industry professionals, as well as the leisure industry requirements.

SOS Marine supplies safety equipment to 12 International Defence forces world-wide.
